

REQUEST FOR SPONSORSHIP

BROOKSTREET HOTEL, OTTAWA, ONTARIO

The Ontario Collaborative Law Federation (“OCLF”) and the Ontario Association for Family Mediation (“OAFM”) are proud to host their second conference together. The OCLF represents 630 collaborative trained family lawyers, family professionals, social workers, chartered accountants, chartered business valuers and other financial professionals who belong to practice groups throughout Ontario.

In 2017, the OAFM celebrated 35 years of setting the Gold standard for accredited mediators. The OAFM represents over 750 Accredited and Associate Mediators across Ontario, also comprised of lawyers, family professionals, social workers, psychologists and financial professionals.

Members in our organizations help families resolve issues arising from their separation and divorce – without going to court. These approaches promote mutual respect and family focused problem solving in a consensual dispute resolution process.

This year’s focus is on the role of Collaborative Practice and Mediation in the evolution of resolution toward the path to peace. Recent studies and reports highlight the need for an interdisciplinary approach to support separating families. The OCLF and OAFM are at the forefront of this approach as it continues to expand across Ontario. Our members support families facing new challenges and welcome new opportunities for growth. The collaboration between the OCLF and the OAFM on this conference will more fully integrate and connect ADR professionals.

The ability of the OCLF and the OAFM to host this conference is largely due to our generous sponsors who lend their name and financial support. We invite you to join with us to promote your business to better serve your clients and assist us to better serve ours. Choose from a variety of affordable sponsorship and exhibitor opportunities throughout the conference from our opening reception, to our guest speaking events, to our gala dinner reception and closing ceremonies – details are attached.

Take advantage of this opportunity to capitalize on face-to face relationships and build awareness of your services to a select audience of decision-makers and professionals.

We look forward to your support of the Ontario Collaborative Law Federation and the Ontario Association of Family Mediation.
